Arnold ROYbal

Arnold Roybal was born April 9, 1965 to Mary Lou Garcia and John Roybal, he then died September 14, 1985.

Arnold attended Weston Elementary and Primero High School until he graduated at the year of 1983. During his school career he played football, basketball, and received numerous awards. After he graduated he worked at various jobs.

Tony Espinoza

Mr. Tony Espinoza worked in the field of education for 40 years. He was deputy of Las Animas County Superintendent Office. Mr. Espinoza taught at Cokedale and in Weston.

Mr. Espinoza worked at Primero High School from July 1960 to June 1985 where he served as high school principal, superintendent, counselor, and classroom teacher.

During his career Mr. Espinoza belonged to many numerous professional organizations.

Rosemary Garlutzo

Mrs. Rosemary Garlutzo has taught school for 38 years. She received an Honorable Mention Certificate from the Colorado Department of Education Teacher of the Year Committee for her many years of dedication to students.

Her first year at teaching was a one room school house at Gulnare where she taught grades four through eight. She then taught grades four through eight in Burro Canyon.

From 1942 to 1952 she taught at the Madrid School which was part of the Primero Consolidation of Schools. She has taught at Weston Elementary from 1955 to 1985 where she served a head teacher since 1964.
